Confirmation

We confirm that

WEY Elektronik AG Unterengstringen

achieved ISO 9001 certification for their quality management system in 1998.

This has been certified by Swiss Association for Quality and Management Systems (SQS).

The maintenance and the further development of the WEY Elektronik AG quality management system is provided by SQB Systemberater AG.

Annual audits confirm that the systems and processes fulfill the ISO standard 9001 and continue to be developed accordingly.
